

Providing your tax file number

Don't pay more tax than you have to – let us know your tax file number

In line with the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, and various taxation acts, NGS Super is authorised to ask for your tax file number. NGS Super will only use your tax file number for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future if there are changes to legislation.

NGS Super may pass your tax file number to another superannuation provider to which your super is transferred in the future unless you request in writing that this not be done.

By providing your tax file number:

NGS Super will be able to accept all types of eligible contributions made by or for you (some limits may apply)

- A higher tax rate will not be applied to your contributions. Members who have not provided their tax file number have a higher contribution tax applied
- Other than tax that would ordinarily apply, no additional tax will be deducted from your super benefit,

- It will be easier for you to find your super and ensure that you receive all of your super benefits when you retire, and
- if you provide consent, we can use your tax file number to complete an ATO SuperMatch search to locate any super you may hold with the ATO or other super funds.

Choosing not to provide your tax file number is not an offence. However, if you don't provide your tax file number:

- we'll only be able to accept contributions made for you by your employer. No other contributions, for example after-tax contributions, can be accepted
- contributions will be taxed at a higher rate
- you may pay more tax on your super benefit than you would otherwise.

If you are a member of NGS Super, or you are applying for membership

We may collect your personal information from you or from third parties such as

- your employer
- a previous super fund
- your financial adviser
- our related entities
- publicly available sources

We may be required or authorised by law to collect your personal information. Relevant laws include the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001, Corporations Act 2001, Family Law Act 1975 and laws relating to superannuation, taxation and anti-money laundering/counter-terrorism financing.

If we are unable to collect all the personal information we have asked for, we may not be able to administer your NGS Super account or take action on a particular request you have made.

We will use your personal information to

- manage your NGS Super account (superannuation or income stream)
- give you information about your NGS Super account
- supply you with information about other products and services offered by us or our related companies
- include your relevant account data in statistics and market research.

We will disclose your personal information to various organisations (but only as required to manage your NGS Super account or the Fund generally), including

- our administrator
- our insurer
- our professional advisers
- your employer
- other service providers that provide services or products relevant to your NGS Super account
- any relevant government authority that requires your personal information to be disclosed.

In managing your super your personal information may be disclosed to service providers overseas. Our Privacy Policy lists relevant offshore locations.

Our Privacy Policy sets out in more detail

- how we deal with your personal information
- how to access and seek correction of the information we hold about you
- how you may lodge a complaint if we breach an Australian Privacy Principle
- how we will handle any complaint.

You can view our Privacy Policy at ngssuper.com.au/about-us/regulatory-disclosures/privacy-statement or obtain a copy by contacting us on 1300 133 177.

If you have any other queries in relation to privacy issues, or if you do not wish to receive marketing material, you may contact us on 1300 133 177. You may also write to the NGS Super Privacy Officer at PO Box 21236 World Square NSW 2002 or online at ngssuper.com.au/contactus.

If you are not a member of NGS Super, and you are not applying for membership

We will use your personal information only to enable us to take action on the particular matter you have contacted us about. In most instances we will not need to collect any further personal information from any other source. We will disclose your personal information only to those organisations mentioned above as are necessary to take action on the matter in question or for the management of the Fund generally.
