HOW TO TRANSFER YOUR SUPER TO NEW ZEALAND

Trans Tasman Portability

Need help?

Please refer to the information and relevant websites detailed below. You can also ring the NGS Super Customer Service Team on 1300 133 177 if you need further assistance.

Are you eligible?

In order to be eligible to transfer your super to a KiwiSaver Scheme in New Zealand, you must:

- · have left Australia to permanently live in New Zealand; and
- · be a current member of a KiwiSaver Scheme

Note:

- 1. If you are a temporary resident of Australia, different rules may apply.
- 2. If your benefit includes an untaxed element or is a defined benefit interest, you will not be eligible.

Please contact the NGS Super Customer Service Team on 1300 133 177 if you have any questions.

Important information

- The whole of your benefit must be transferred to the nominated KiwiSaver Scheme in New Zealand.
   Payment of part of your benefit is not permitted under any circumstances.
- You will be able to access your Australian super when you reach age 60 and satisfy the Australian definition of retirement at that age. Your KiwiSaver portion (the amount accumulated in New Zealand, together with earnings on your Australian super) can only be accessed when you reach the New Zealand retirement age of 65.
- The Trustee recommends that you seek independent professional financial advice before proceeding.

What you need to provide

- An original copy of a letter of compliance from your KiwiSaver Scheme that (a) confirms the Scheme will accept payment and (b) provides details of the Scheme's bank account (refer Step 5 on the Trans Tasman Portability form for full details).
- 2. Certified proof of identity.

What are the requirements?

You will need to provide a certified copy of either your current driver's licence or current passport OR your birth certificate AND one document from list two.

| List One          | List Two  |
|-------------------|---|
| Birth certificate | New Zealand utility bill (electricity, gas or water bill) issued in the last 3 months                 |
|                   | New Zealand landline phone bill issued in the last 3 months (mobile phone bills will NOT be accepted) |

Who can certify documents outside Australia?

The following people are authorised to certify your documents outside Australia:

- An authorised staff member of an Australian Embassy, High Commission or Consulate who is in a country or place outside Australia
- · An authorised employee of the Australian Trade Commission who is in a country or place outside Australia
- An authorised employee of the Commonwealth of Australia who is in a country or place outside Australia
- · A member of the Australian Defence Force who is an officer or a non-commissioned officer with 5 or more years of continuous service
- A notary public from a country ranked 129 or below in the latest Transparency International Corruption Perceptions Index (refer to www.transparency.org)

Continued over

What you need to provide (continued)

How to certify your documents

The authorised person needs to:

- a. Compare the photocopy to the ORIGINAL
- b. Include the following details on the photocopy
  - Write "Certified true copy" on the photocopy; and
  - Write their name, qualification and registration number (if applicable); and
  - · Sign and date the photocopy

3. Proof of New Zealand Residency

A copy of a New Zealand utility bill (electricity, gas or water bill) or landline phone bill issued in the last 3 months OR a copy of a tenancy/leasing agreement for a New Zealand property in which you reside.

4. A completed statutory declaration witnessed by an eligible person.

You can provide a New Zealand OR an Australian<sup>3</sup> statutory declaration. A copy of each type of declaration is attached at the end of this form.

Witness to a statutory declaration

A statutory declaration must be witnessed by a person who is eligible to do so under the law in either Australia or New Zealand. The people who can witness your statutory declaration in New Zealand will generally be different to those who can certify your proof of identity documents (refer to item 2 on previous page). The table left is provided as a guide only.

For a full list of people who can witness a statutory declaration, please refer to the following websites:

Notes and further information:

- <sup>1</sup> If you elect to use a New Zealand statutory declaration, a Notary Public can also certify your proof of identity documents.
- <sup>2</sup> The Australian statutory declaration must be signed in front of the Consular or Diplomatic Officer and cannot be witnessed by mail. It is not necessary to make an appointment, but you will be charged a small fee. You will be required to present current photo ID, showing both your current name and signature. The Consular or Diplomatic Officer can also certify your proof of identity documents. Please refer to the Australian High Commission website for further information www.newzealand.embassy.gov.au
- <sup>3</sup> If you complete an Australian statutory declaration in Australia, please refer to the Australian website in point 4 left, for a full list of people who can witness your Australian statutory declaration in Australia.
