

EARLY RELEASE OF SUPERANNUATION BENEFITS ON GROUNDS OF SEVERE FINANCIAL HARDSHIP

The following information will be used solely for determining whether you are experiencing severe financial hardship. The completed form (or copy) will not be made available to any other person (except under an order of a Court). The form includes a Statutory Declaration that must be signed and witnessed.

If you need help

For assistance call NGS Super Customer Service Team on 1300 133 177, or refer to the NGS website www.ngssuper.com.au.

Before you complete this application you need to read the information below.

What you need to know

The following information will be used solely for determining whether you are eligible for early release of your superannuation benefit on the grounds of financial hardship. This form will not be made available to any other person (except under an order of a Court).

When assessing your claim for early release due to financial hardship, NGS Super will consider your application in accordance with the Guidelines published by APRA and in accordance with superannuation law. Accordingly, the trustee will exercise its right to request personal information in order to validate your financial position. A claim for early release of superannuation benefits due to 'financial hardship' must be qualified on the basis that your household income does not adequately meet your daily living expenses. It is important that you provide sufficient information for the trustee to assess your financial position.

If you do not evidence your financial position by providing copies of documents that evidence your income, expenses and liabilities or provide letters of demand, bankruptcy notices or any other documentation to support your claim, we will have to write to you requesting this information and this may delay the assessment of your application.

Are you eligible to apply for early release on the grounds of financial hardship?

Regardless of your age, you can apply for one payment of up to $10,000 gross in a 12-month period if:

- you've received Commonwealth income support payments at the time of the claim and have been on these payments for a continuous period of at least 26 weeks
- you're receiving these payments when you make your application for payment under financial hardship, and
- you're unable to meet reasonable and immediate family living expenses.

If you are age 55 and 39 weeks you can apply for any amount if:

- you've been receiving Commonwealth income support payments for a cumulative period of at least 39 weeks since reaching age 55, and
- you're unemployed or employed for less than ten hours a week when you make your application for payment under financial hardship.

What you need to provide with this application

- Centrelink Customer Reference Number
- Certified proof of your identity (ID). (see Step 12 for details)
- Proof of current weekly income and expenses relating to yourself, your partner and your dependents. These documents should not be more than 1 month old¹
- Proof of outstanding debts such as copies of overdue notices or bills that are no more than one month old¹
- Statutory Declaration (attached to this application)

APRA release on compassionate grounds

If you do not qualify for early release of your super benefit on the grounds of severe financial hardship, you may enquire about the release of some or all your benefits on compassionate grounds via APRA. To do this, you will need to contact the Australian Government Department of Human Services (Human Services).

For details, you can visit www.humanservices.gov.au/customer/services/centrelink/early-release-of-superannuation or call 1300 13 10 60.
